

Other Fun Things to add to your Disney Vacation Bucket list

- ✓ Fireworks Cruise- Enjoy a dessert party on a pontoon boat or the Grand Yacht for a spectacular view on Bay Lake of the Magic Kingdom Fireworks show. One of our favorites is the Pirate & Pals Fireworks Voyage with Captain Hook, Smee and Peter Pan, includes all you can eat goodies and sailing on an adventure full of laughs and jokes on Bay lake with a prime viewing of the Magic Kingdom Fireworks show. $$-$$$
- ✓ Celebration custom cakes- Pre order a specialty cake to be delivered to participating resorts and restaurants around Walt Disney World. You can call Cake-Ordering Hotline at 407-827-2253. There are a few standard cakes but most cakes are all custom made so you can submit images to the chefs to have them design your own. $-$$
- ✓ Harmony Barber Shop- Located in the Magic Kingdom just off of Main Street USA. If you have a little one ready for their 1st haircut they offer a package complete with a certificate and Mouse Ears. Adults and kids can get cuts too. $
- ✓ Carriage rides- Take a 25-minute romantic ride or family carriage ride on a horse and buggy at Fort Wilderness Campground, Port Orleans Resort and even a Holiday sleigh ride. $$
- ✓ Park Tours- Disney parks offers everything from Family Magic tours, educational tours in Epcot to Star wars tours at DHS. Tour prices start from $20 and up. We really enjoyed the Magic behind the Steam train tour. All ages can attend and it was an interesting look back to Walt's love of trains. $-$$$
- ✓ Pin Trading- Purchase a pin trading set with a lanyard at one of the gift shops or online before your trip to get started. You can walk up to any cast member to trade pins. So if you see one you like get ready to trade one of yours. Don't give away your good pins! It's a fun activity for kids. Always watch for pin sales on Disney shopping or a at local Disney outlet and use these to trade. Remember, you can trade with anyone who is wearing pins but they don't have to trade with you. Only cast member are obligated to trade all the pins they have. $-$$
- ✓ Dinner shows- There are 3 dinner shows at the Walt Disney World Resort. All are on the dining plan. The Luau, Mickey's backyard BBQ and the Hoop Dee Doo Review. If you have a chance our favorite is the Hoop Dee Doo Review. Be sure to try it at least once. You will have a blast and the food is yummy too! Plus it includes all you can drink beer and sangria. $$
- ✓ Amphicar Tours- Located at Disney Springs at the Boat House Restaurant. It's the only place in the world to ride in these guided tours of these vintage cars that ride on land and water. This is such a fun treat for your family. Something that most people will never get to do. It can be costly around $125 but a perfect gift if you have someone celebrating something special. You only live once so go for it! $$$
- ✓ Jelly Rolls – Disney Boardwalk -This is for folks over 21. Get entertained by dueling pianos and guest sing-a-longs. These guys know every song, it's so much fun! Get there early to grab a table. There is small cover charge to enter. Enjoy a drink and then stroll on the Disney Boardwalk at night. $
- ✓ Golf and Mini- golf- If the parks close early head over for a round of Mini golf at Disney's 2 miniature golf courses Fantasia Gardens and Fairways by the Disney Boardwalk or Winter Summerland by Blizzard Beach Water Park. If you are an avid golfer you can schedule a tee time and the 3 Disney 18 hole golf courses, you can even the rent clubs. Not enough time head to Disney's Oak Trails golf course for a 9 hole round, great for families & kids who golf together. $-$$$
- ✓ Pressed Pennies- save your quarters and pennies at home, pop them in an empty mini M&M container and bring them along on vacation. Have your kids save them up all year long. There are Penny machines everywhere! Each one cost 50 cents plus a penny. Kids can collect their favorites. Overall it's a relatively inexpensive fun things the kids can do throughout the Resorts. You can pick up penny holders books in any gift shop. $
- ✓ Ghostly Spirit Portraits- located inside Memento Mori shop by the Haunted mansion. This is fun if you are a Haunted mansion fan like us. Pose for an 8x10 lenticular ghostly image of yourself that reveals your Disney spirited side. $
- ✓ Disney Water Parks- Many times overlooked because there is just not enough time because everyone is in a rush. I am guilty. Be sure to schedule some swim time and head over to Blizzard Beach or Typhoon lagoon if it's in your budget and time allows. You can add these to your park ticket pass at guest services. $$
